

Elder Frank H. Mixon
KUOMagazine's Faith Session Journalist

Elder Frank H. Mixon, II is a native of Long Island, N.Y., chosen to carry the family legacy of preaching the gospel. He is the eldest of four children and only son born to Bishop Frank and Co-Pastor Gloria Mixon, of the Mt. Calvary Holy Church, in Huntington, N.Y.

In 1983, he began traveling with Dr. Todd M. Hall evangelizing the country. Serving as Dr. Hall's friend, armourbearer and driving companion for seven years, he is no stranger to the power of God, miracles, deliverance and walking in the prophetic. Accepting his call to ministry, Elder Frank was ordained in 1998 at his father's church and served faithfully until his next elevation in ministry.

In 2001, he and his family relocated from New York to Orlando, Florida where he was installed to serve as Assistant Pastor of The Shabach Church.

Elder Frank has been a faithful servant in the kingdom for decades and has a prophetic teaching style that changes the lives of all who came in contact with his ministry. He has earned the nickname "Silent Assassin" for his unassuming nature and quiet approach to skillfully reclaim souls from the enemy. His nickname becomes evident as he ministers, and the power of God saturates the atmosphere destroying strongholds and chains are broken off the lives of God's people.

Elder Frank proudly served in the United States Navy for eleven years. Thereafter, he received an Honorable Discharge and is a disabled Veteran. He has traveled all over the world and attended the University of Maryland majoring in Psychology.

Elder Frank is married to Lady Maria Mixon with four children: three boys and one girl. He is the head Audio Visual Consultant to The Shabach Church as well as consultant to several local business and churches in the Orlando Metropolitan area. In addition, he owns a private business as a personal clothing buyer and is co-owner of a beauty and skin care consulting agency with his wife.