

Article Published March 2018 of Women of Kulture Radio Show Written by Naomi Gayle - Jamaica.

Evangelist/Pastor Naomi Gayle (Jamaica) 2018 Women of Kulture Honoree

Naomi Gayle (nee Thomas) was born in the lovely country of Jamaica, West Indies and is the last of ten children of Mr. & Mrs. Stanley Thomas. She was educated through elementary to high school and then at Mico Teachers' College where she majored in English Language and Social Studies. She later studied Accounts & Management at Duff's Business College. She served as a teacher in these fields and later migrated to the United States of America. Her service in USA led her in the medical field both traditional and Alternative.

She also continued her service in Ministerial work having been ordained and serve as Pastor and Community Worker. She has contributed tremendously to the Central Florida Community from Orlando to Daytona Beach bringing awareness of the Caribbean Community and its contribution to USA. As a resident of Volusia County for many years she has worked tirelessly to assist the community through the Church and the Caribbean American Chamber of Commerce Volusia and also the Chamber in Orlando.

Some of her work includes; providing opportunity for Volusia County residents to have their criminal record sealed or expunged through Expungement Workshops, facilitating Caribbean heritage Month in the County, assisting Stetson College CSA in their yearly Caribbean Week through the Caribbean Chamber's efforts, organizing various Health seminars, Youth Summits, Food Programs and Community Outreaches to name a few, Caribbean American Heritage Month, Volusia (CAHM), 2018 MLK Deltona Celebrations, she was one of the proud recipients of the Gus Dowel Humanitarian Award.

Her desire to to never stop doing what she does best "to Serve".

Naomi Gayle, President
Caribbean American Chamber of Commerce, Volusia County
Email: caccvolusia@gmail.com
Email: n2gayle@yahoo.com
Cell: \(386\)232-8134232-8134)