CELEBRATING MY CULTURE IS BEAUTIFUL 365

with Agnès W. Tailé

Agnès W. Tailé (aka Queen Aggie), was born and raised in Cameroon, one of the most diverse country in Africa. The passion for fashion she has developed at a very young age lead her to the runway at 17. But while growing up, her parents wanted her to do something different than sewing.

Agnès put her first passion on hold and went for journalism, another profession she was craving for. After working as a reporter and anchor for nearly 10 years in Cameroon, Agnès Tailé has received successively three 3 awards in journalism in recognition of her bravery and determination.

In 2009, dreading for her life because of her work, she was forced to leave her lovely country and landed in America. All this time her passion for fashion has never left. In 2016, almost 20 year later, she revived it with Camerica Creations. She defines brand as classy, sassy, perky but lenient and elegant at the same time. She plays a lot with bright colors and different type of fabric and always stays grounded to the Motherland.

Her Camerica Creations brand name comes from the “C” for Cameroon and then America, with the combination of these 2 countries is just an endless source of inspiration.

We will be honoring Agnès W. Tailé (aka Queen Aggie), at our 4th Annual Women of Kulture 365 “Queen Edition” Empowerment Luncheon 2020, as our “Africa” Honoree on Sunday, March 29th, 2020 at Three Mask, Inc. Art Gallery & Event Center. Events start at 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm. Ticket can be purchase on our website at www.KUOMagazine.com.
