CELEBRATING MY CULTURE IS BEAUTIFUL 365

with Joanna Bucaro

Joanna Bucaro (born Guatemala) is a Christian mother of three bilingual children. She is a loving and creative preschool teacher and has been working with children for more than 20 years. Her native language is Spanish. She was one of the founders and owners of Kids' Center, a preschool and afterschool center in her home country, Guatemala.

Her work earned her a feature on FOX 35 TV News, showcasing her contribution of valuable services to the Early Learning Coalition of Orange County, Orange County Public Library System and Seminole County Public Library System, Seminole County Public Schools.

In 2011, she was awarded a scholarship for the Leadership Development Program "Women on the Move" at Florida International University (FIU). She is a member of the Global Senate of Executive Women and ACTFL (American Council of the Teaching of Foreign Languages) and has participated as a speaker for the Guatemalan American Institute IGA and Fernandez Editorial. Her program, All Kids

Spanish, a Spanish Immersion Program for children; was selected as 2019 Family Favorite Awards from the Playground Magazine in the following categories:

- Favorite Homeschool Class, 1st place.
- Favorite Foreign Language Program, 1st place
- Favorite Cooking Class, 3rd place.
- Favorite Summer Camp, 5th place

Joanna believes in giving back to her community and is actively involved in the children's ministry at her local church.
